Among the postmaster appointments for this congressional district sent to the Senate for confirmation last week was that of Greenville, President Roosevelt naming W. E. Halley, our efficient court bailiff, for the position. However, the adjournment of Congress on Monday without any action being taken by the Senate annuls all these appointments for the present, and they will have to be made over again. Mr. Halley had the endorsement of both our Republican executive and central committees and Senator Dick, and being well qualified for the position this action of the Senate is to be deplored. The postmaster appointments, as well as that of the new federal judge, will have to go over to the recess or possibly next session. As a club to force the president to appoint Judge Adams of Zanesville to the federal judgship, Senators Foraker and Dick held up the appointment of quite a number of other Ohio postmasters, among them being Sidney, Urbana, Celina, Wapakoneta, and West Alexandria.

FACTS FOR MEN OF ALL ACES. By reason of false modesty the youth of our land are kept in ignorance of the rulnous results which certain solitary indiscreat practices produce. You may consult him with complete confidence. Of all the maladies that affect mankind there is probably none about which physicians in general practice know so little. DELAY IS DANCEROUS.
